"But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female" (Mark 10:6)

Edmund Dumas (1869)

S

1. When A - dam was cre - a - ted, He dwelt in E - den's shade; As Mo - ses has re - la - ted, Be - fore a bride was made.
2. He had not con - so - la - tion, But seemed as one a - lone, Till, to his ad - mi - ra - tion, He found he'd lost a bone.
3. This wo - man, she was ta - ken From near to A - dam's heart, By which we are di - rec - ted That they should ne - ver part.
4. This wo - man, she was ta - ken From un - der A - dam's arm; And she must be pro - tec - ted From in - ju - ry and harm.
5. The hus - band is com - man - ded To love his lo - ving bride; And live as does a Chris - tian, And for his house pro - vide.

Ten thous-and times ten thous - and Of crea - tures swarmed a - round, Be - fore a bride was for - med, Or a - ny mate was found.
 Great was his e - xul - ta - tion, To see her by his side; Great was his e - le - va - tion To have a lo - ving bride.
 This wo - man was not ta - ken From A - dam's head, we know; And she must not rule o'er him, It's e - vi - dent - ly so.
 This wo - man was not ta - ken From A - dam's feet, we see; And she must not be a - bus-ed, The mea-ning seems to be.
 The wo - man is com - man - ded Her hus - band to o - bey, In eve - ry thing that's law - ful, Un - til her dy - ing day.
